Ground Rules

- The NEWAC Chair with the assistance of the BRN Executive Officer and moderator(s) will guide the discussion.
- When you speak, although it is not required, it is helpful if you state your name and the organization and/or community that you represent, so that the committee and public may know who is speaking as well as who they represent within the community. You are still permitted to comment if you choose not to identify yourself.
- Everyone is encouraged to participate, and no person(s) should dominate a discussion. Listen to and respect other points of view. Do your best to understand the pros and cons of every option, not just those you prefer. Be as objective and fair-minded as you can be.
- When you speak, be purposeful and to the point. The purpose is to hear many points of view and explore many options and solutions. This is a discussion, not a debate.
